G4CSLAKP

(Case called)

MR. COHEN: Jonathan Cohen on behalf of the government.

With me at Counsel table is Special Agent David Fankhauser from the Department of State.

Good morning, your Honor.

THE COURT: Good morning.

MR. MYERS: Matthew Myers on behalf of Mr. Lakou.

Good morning, your Honor. How are you?

THE COURT: Let's go off the record for a second.

(Discussion off the record)

THE COURT: Mr. Lakou, I have before me a form that's called a Consent to Proceed Before a United States Magistrate Judge on a Felony Plea Allocution form that you have signed. What the form says is that, knowing that you have the right to have your plea taken before a United States District Judge, you are nonetheless agreeing to have your plea taken this morning in magistrate's court. Is that correct.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

THE COURT: Did you discuss consenting to have a plea taken here this morning with Mr. Myers before you signed the form?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

THE COURT: I will accept the consent.

Now, Mr. Lakou, the purpose of this proceeding today

G4CSLAKP

1 is to make sure that you understand all of your rights, to
2 decide whether you are pleading guilty of your own free will,
3 and to make sure you are pleading guilty because you are guilty
4 and not for some other reason. Do you understand that?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: If at any time you do not understand any
7 of the questions that I am going to be asking you during this
8 proceeding or you want to consult with Mr. Myers, please let me
9 know, because it is extremely important that you understand
10 every question before you answer. All right?

11 THE DEFENDANT: All right.

12 THE COURT: Now, before I take your plea, as I said, I
13 am going to be asking you a series of questions, and therefore
14 I need to place you under oath.

15 If you will please stand again briefly and raise your 16 right hand.

17 (Defendant sworn)

18 THE COURT: Do you understand, Mr. Lakou, that the 19 statements that you make here today under oath and may be used
20 against you in a prosecution for perjury or for making false
21 statements if you do not tell the truth?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Please tell the court your full name.

24 THE DEFENDANT: Ashraf Lakou.

25 THE COURT: How old are you?

G4CSLAKP

1 THE DEFENDANT: 27.

2 THE COURT: Are you a citizen of the United States?

3 THE DEFENDANT: No.

4 THE COURT: Where are you from?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Sudan.

6 THE COURT: You're a citizen of Sudan?

7 THE DEFENDANT: I am no longer a citizen of Sudan. I
8 am stateless currently.

9 THE COURT: I see. Are you able to read and write in 10 English?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

12 THE COURT: How far did you go in school?

13 THE DEFENDANT: High school.

14 THE COURT: Are you now or have you recently been
15 under the care of a doctor or a psychiatrist for any reason?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Is that something that is taking place
18 while you are incarcerated?

19 THE DEFENDANT: It is now, as well, yes.

20 THE COURT: What are you being treated for?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Bipolar and depression.

22 THE COURT: I see. Are you taking any medication as a
23 result of that treatment?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

25 THE COURT: What medication are you taking?

G4CSLAKP

1 THE DEFENDANT: I was on Risperdal, now they put me on
2 Prozac and BuSpar.

3 THE COURT: I see. The medication, did you take any
4 of that medication today?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

6 THE COURT: Does that medication affect your ability
7 to think or reason or understand in any way?

8 THE DEFENDANT: No.

9 THE COURT: Does it affect your ability to make
10 judgments or make decisions?

11 THE DEFENDANT: No.

12 THE COURT: As you sit here today, other than the drug
13 that you mentioned, are you under the influence of any
14 mind-altering drug or any alcohol?

15 THE DEFENDANT: No.

16 THE COURT: Have you been able to understand
17 everything that I have said to you so far today?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Do you feel all right today?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Mr. Myers, do you have any question about
22 your client's ability to proceed or his competency?

23 MR. MYERS: No, Judge.

24 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen, do you?

25 MR. COHEN: No, your Honor?

G4CSLAKP

1 THE COURT: Mr. Lakou, have you seen a copy of the
2 indictment in this case?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Have you read it?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have.

6 THE COURT: Do you understand what it says that you
7 did?

8 THE DEFENDANT: I understood it basically, but not in 9 depth.

10 THE COURT: Have you discussed the charges in the 11 indictment with Mr. Myers?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have.

13 THE COURT: Have you had a chance to discuss with him
14 how you wish to plead with respect to those charges?

15 THE DEFENDANT: I have, yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Are you satisfied with his representation
17 of you?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I am.

19 THE COURT: Have you had a full opportunity to discuss
20 the case with him?

21 THE DEFENDANT: I have to a satisfactory level, yes.

22 THE COURT: And has he discussed with you the 23 consequences of pleading guilty today?

24 THE DEFENDANT: He has, yes.

25 THE COURT: Are you ready to enter a plea at this

G4CSLAKP

1 time?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: I understand that you're going to be
4 pleading guilty to Counts One through Six of the indictment.

5 Is that the understanding of the government,
6 Mr. Cohen?

7 MR. COHEN: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Is that your understanding, Mr. Myers?

9 MR. MYERS: Yes, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Mr. Lakou, what I intend to do is review
11 each count with you one at a time, the charge in the count and 12 the penalty associated with that count, and then ask you to 13 plead guilty or not guilty to each one of those counts. All
14 right?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

16 THE COURT: With respect to Count One, that charges
17 you with participating in a conspiracy to commit access to 18 device fraud in violation of federal law. That charge carries
19 a maximum term of imprisonment of seven and a half years, a
20 maximum term of supervised release of three years, a maximum
21 fine pursuant to federal law of the greatest of $250,000, twice
22 the gross gain derived from the offense, or twice the gross
23 loss to persons other than you resulting from the offense, and 24 a $100 mandatory statement.

25 Do you understand the charge in Count One and the

G4CSLAKP

1 penalties that are associated with that charge?

2 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

3 THE COURT: How do you wish to plead to Count One;
4 guilty or not guilty?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

6 THE COURT: With respect to Count Two, that charges
7 you with aggravated identity theft in violation of federal law.
8 That charge carries a mandatory term of imprisonment of two
9 years, which must be served consecutively to any sentence
10 imposed on Count One, Count Three or Count Five of the 11 indictment. It also carries a maximum term of supervised
12 release of one year, a maximum fine pursuant to federal law of
13 the greatest of $250,000, twice the gross gain derived from the
14 offense or twice the gross loss to persons other than you
15 resulting from the offense, and a $100 mandatory statement.

16 Do you understand the charge in Count Two and the
17 penalties associated with that charge?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: How do you wish to plead to Count Two;
20 guilty or not guilty?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

22 THE COURT: With respect to Count Three, that charges
23 you with participating in a conspiracy to commit bank fraud in 24 violation of federal law, and that charge carries a maximum
25 term of imprisonment of 30 years, a maximum term of supervised

G4CSLAKP

1 release of five years, a maximum fine of $1 million, and a $100
2 mandatory statement.

3 Do you understand the charge in Count Three and the
4 penalties associated with that charge?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: How do you wish to plead to Count Three?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

8 THE COURT: With respect to Count Four, that charges
9 you with aggravated identity theft in violation of federal law
10 and carries a mandatory term of imprisonment of two years,
11 which must be served consecutively to any sentence imposed on 12 Counts One, Three or Five of the indictment. It also carries a
13 maximum term of supervised release of one year, a maximum fine
14 pursuant to federal law of the greatest of $250,000, twice the 15 gross gain derived from the offense or twice the gross loss to
16 persons other than you resulting from the offense, and a $100
17 mandatory special assessment.

18 Do you understand the charge in Count Four and the
19 penalties associated with that charge?

20 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: How do you wish to plead; guilty or not 22 guilty?

23 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

24 THE COURT: With respect to Count Five, that charges
25 you with making false statements in a passport application and

G4CSLAKP

1 using a passport secured by false statements in violation of
2 federal law. That charge carries a maximum term of
3 imprisonment of ten years, a maximum term of supervised release
4 of three years, a maximum fine pursuant to federal law of the 5 greatest of $250,000, twice the gross gain derived from the
6 offense or twice the gross loss to persons other than you
7 resulting from the offense, and a $100 mandatory special
8 assessment.

9 Do you understand the charge in Count Five and the
10 penalties associated with that charge?

11 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, can you repeat the time
12 that I would have to do for this charge?

13 THE COURT: For Count Five?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

15 THE COURT: Count Five carries a maximum term of
16 imprisonment of ten years, a maximum term of supervised release
17 of three years, a maximum fine of the greatest of $250,000,
18 twice the gross gain derived from the offense or twice the 19 gross loss to persons other than you resulting from the 20 offense, and a $100 mandatory assessment.

21 Do you understand that?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: How do you wish to plead to Count Five?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

25 THE COURT: The last charge is Count Six, which

G4CSLAKP

1 charges you with aggravated identity theft in violation of
2 federal law. Count Six carries a mandatory term of
3 imprisonment of two years, which must be served consecutively
4 to any sentence imposed on Counts One, Three or Five of the
5 indictment. It also carries a maximum term of supervised
6 release of one year, a maximum fine pursuant to federal law of
7 the greatest of $250,000, twice the gross gain derived from the
8 offense or twice the gross loss to persons other than you
9 resulting from the offense, and a $100 mandatory statement.

10 Do you understand the charge in Count Six and the
11 penalties associated with that charge?

12 THE DEFENDANT: If I may, your Honor, just ask my 13 attorney a question?

14 THE COURT: Yes, you may.

15 (Discussion off the record)

16 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor?

17 THE COURT: Yes.

18 THE DEFENDANT: On Count Six, how does it transform
19 into aggravated identity theft from false use of passport?

20 THE COURT: How does it transform? You mean why --

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yeah. Because it is being named as 22 aggravated identify theft. Originally I was told that it is 23 just use of false -- false use of passport.

24 THE COURT: I believe that is Count Five, but let me
25 ask Mr. Cohen to see if he can address that issue.

G4CSLAKP

1 Mr. Cohen?

2 MR. COHEN: Of course, your Honor.

3 So, Count Five is the obtaining of the passport in 4 2010, and then in the name of an individual other than the
5 defendant, who is a real person, and then using that passport
6 later. Count Six is aggravated identity theft, so it is the 7 use of the means of identification of another person; in this
8 case, the Georgia individual that I just mentioned in
9 connection with committing Count Five.

10 So, Count Six is the identity, aggravated identity
11 theft portion that has to be linked to a felony, and here it is 12 linked to the felony to this charge in Count Five.

13 So it is the use of -- I don't want to say the 14 victim's name here -- but it is the use of that victim's name
15 and identifying information to turn around, make a passport
16 application in 2010. He successfully obtained that passport in 17 this other person's name and then ultimately changed -- you
18 know, used Brooklyn courts to change his name from the victim's
19 name to a third name, and applied for a 2014 passport in that 20 third name.

21 So Count Six is the aggravated identity theft that is 22 attached to the passport conduct.

23 THE COURT: Do you understand what the prosecutor just 24 said, Mr. Lakou?

25 THE DEFENDANT: I do. Yes, your Honor.

G4CSLAKP

1 THE COURT: As a result of the clarification or
2 supplement that he has made on the record and my review of the
3 charge in Count Six, as well as the penalties associated with
4 that charge, how do you wish to plead to Count Six?

5 THE DEFENDANT: Before I plead, there is no mandatory
6 minimum, correct?

7 THE COURT: With respect to Count Six?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

9 THE COURT: There is a mandatory minimum of two years
10 for Count Six.

11 THE DEFENDANT: There is?

12 THE COURT: Yes.

13 THE DEFENDANT: I wish to plead guilty, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Let me also say, as your agreement with 15 the government states, that the total maximum term of 16 imprisonment on Counts One through Six of the indictment is 17 53 and a half years, which includes a mandatory minimum term of 18 two years. Do you understand that?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

20 THE COURT: Am I correct that as part of your plea
21 agreement with the government, you are also admitting to the 22 forfeiture allegations with respect to Counts One, Three, and 23 Five of the indictment?

24 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: And am I also correct that as part of your

G4CSLAKP

1 plea agreement, you are agreeing to make restitution in the
2 amount of $557,894.50? Is that part of your agreement with the 3 government?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Do you understand, Mr. Lakou, as part of
6 your sentence, if you are placed on a term of supervised
7 release and then you violate any of the terms and conditions of 8 that release, you could face an additional term of 9 imprisonment? Do you understand that?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Do you also understand that your guilty
12 plea may result in your being removed from the United States,
13 denied citizenship in the United States, and denied admission
14 to the United States in the future?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Do you understand that you're going to be
17 bound by your guilty plea regardless of the immigration
18 consequences of your plea and regardless of any advice you have 19 received from your attorney, or from anyone else for that
20 matter, regarding those consequences?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Have you specifically discussed the 23 immigration consequences of your plea with Mr. Myers?

24 THE DEFENDANT: I have, your Honor, and I have also
25 discussed them with an immigration lawyer.

G4CSLAKP

1 THE COURT: Very well.

2 At this juncture, Mr. Lakou, I want to review with you
3 a number of rights that you have that you're going to be giving
4 up as a result of the guilty plea here today.

5 Do you understand, first of all, that you have the 6 right to continue to plead not guilty to the charges in the 7 indictment and a right to a speedy and public jury trial, if
8 you wish? Do you understand that?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Do you understand that if you were to 11 continue to plead not guilty and go to trial, you would be 12 presumed innocent and the burden would be on the government to 13 prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt? Do you understand 14 that?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: Do you understand that you would be 17 entitled to be represented by an attorney at all stages of the 18 proceedings, at trial and at every other stage, and if you
19 could not afford to hire or retain an attorney, the court would 20 provide an attorney to you for free?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Do you understand that if there were a
23 trial in your case, you would be entitled to confront and 24 cross-examine any of the witnesses called by the government to 25 testify against you?

G4CSLAKP

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Do you understand you would be entitled to
3 testify on your own behalf?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Do you understand that you could call
6 witnesses and present evidence if there were a trial?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: And do you understand that you could ask
9 the court to issue subpoenas to compel witnesses to appear and
10 testify in your defense, even if they did not wish to otherwise
11 come to court?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Do you understand that if there were a
14 trial, you would not be required to testify against yourself?

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: And if you chose not to testify, that fact
17 could not be used against you?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

19 THE COURT: Do you understand if you went to trial and 20 were convicted at trial, you would still have the right to 21 appeal that conviction to a higher court?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Do you understand that by entering a
24 guilty plea here today, you will be giving up all of the rights
25 that I have just reviewed with you, including your right to a

G4CSLAKP

1 trial, you will not be able to withdraw include plea, and the
2 only remaining step in this case will be the sentencing? Do
3 you understand that?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Do you understand that the decision as to 6 the appropriate sentence in your case will be entirely up to 7 the sentencing judge, who in this case is Judge Marrero, and he
8 will be limited only by what the law requires?

9 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: Do you understand that even if you are 11 surprised or disappointed by your sentence, you will still be 12 bound by your guilty plea?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Knowing everything that I have just 15 reviewed with you, do you still wish to plead guilty to 16 Counts One through Six of the indictment?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Has any force or have any threats of force
19 been used either directly or indirectly to influence how you
20 plead today?

21 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Now, I have before me a plea agreement
23 that is dated March 11, 2016, to your attorney from the 24 government that contains the plea agreement in your case. Have 25 you read this letter?

G4CSLAKP

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Did you sign it on the last page?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Before you signed it, did you discuss it
5 with Mr. Myers?

6 THE DEFENDANT: I have, your Honor, yes.

7 THE COURT: Did he explain to you all of the terms and
8 conditions in this agreement?

9 THE DEFENDANT: He has, your Honor, yes.

10 THE COURT: Apart from what is contained in the 11 letter, have any promises been made to you in order to get you
12 to plead guilty?

13 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Now, in reviewing the agreement, I note
15 that beginning on page three, it contains an analysis of how
16 part of our law of sentencing known as the sentencing
17 guidelines may impact on any prison term in your case.

18 Based on that analysis, on page five of the agreement,
19 it says the following: That your guidelines range on Counts
20 One, Three, and Five is 70 to 87 months' imprisonment, and your
21 guideline range on Counts Two, Four, and Six is a mandatory
22 consecutive 24 months' imprisonment, for an aggregate
23 stipulated guideline range of 94 to 111 months' imprisonment.
24 Do you understand that that is what the agreement provides?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

G4CSLAKP

1 THE COURT: Do you understand that Judge Marrero is
2 not going to be bound by the calculation that is in this letter
3 and he is going to be free to come up with his own calculation,
4 which may result in a range that is different from the one that
5 is in the letter?

6 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: Do you understand that no matter what
8 sentencing range Judge Marrero believes is called for by the 9 guidelines, that range is just one of many factors that he is 10 going to consider in determining your sentence, and he has the 11 discretion to give you a prison sentence below or above the 12 range anywhere up to the maximum sentence of imprisonment we 13 spoke about a few minutes ago?

14 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

15 THE COURT: You also understand that under the terms
16 of your agreement, if Judge Marrero sentences you to a prison
17 term that is 111 months or less, you will be giving up your
18 right to appeal that sentence or to challenge it in any other
19 way, such as through a writ of habeas corpus? Do you
20 understand that?

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Do you understand that in the letter, you
23 are also giving up your right to complain if the government
24 withheld evidence from your attorney that would have been
25 helpful to you?

G4CSLAKP

1 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Now, Mr. Lakou, is your plea voluntary?

3 And what I mean by that is, is it made of your own free will?

4 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

5 THE COURT: Did you, in fact, commit the offenses that
6 are charged in Counts One through Six of the indictment?

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, I have, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Now, before I ask you to tell the court
9 what you did that makes you guilty of these charges, I am going
10 to ask the government to review the elements of each one of the 11 charges, and then to advise the court what the evidence would
12 have been if there had been a trial in your case.

13 Mr. Cohen.

14 MR. COHEN: Yes, your Honor.

15 We will start with Count One, which is a count that
16 charges conspiracy to commit access device fraud, in violation
17 of Title 18, United States Code, 1029(b)(2). There are two 18 charged objects, one is 1029(a)(2) and one is 1029(a)(5). For 19 those two charged objects, those two substantive offenses, I am
20 going to do the substantives first and then the conspiracy
21 elements right after that, your Honor.

22 The four elements of violations of 1029(a)(2) and 23 1029(a)(5) are the following:

24 First, that an access device is involved;

25 Second -- here is where it deviates for the two

G4CSLAKP

1 substantive sections -- for 1029(a)(2), the second element is
2 that a defendant trafficked in or used one or more unauthorized
3 access devices during any one-year period and in so doing
4 obtained anything of value;

5 For Section 1029(a)(5), the second element is that a
6 defendant used one or more access devices issued to another
7 person or persons during any one-year period and in so doing
8 obtained anything of value amounting to $1,000 or more;

9 The third element of both of those substantive
10 offenses is that the defendant acted knowingly, willfully, and 11 with intent to defraud;

12 The fourth element is that interstate or foreign
13 commerce was affected by a defendant's actions.

14 Those are the elements of the substantive objects.

15 The elements of the conspiracy, 1029(b)(2), are the 16 following. There are three of them:

17 First, that there existed an agreement between two or
18 more persons to violate Section 1029(a)(2) or to violate
19 Section 1029(a)(5);

20 The second element of the conspiracy charge is that
21 the defendant knowingly and willfully participated in the 22 conspiracy; and

23 Third, the third element is a member of the conspiracy
24 committed an overt act in furtherance of the conspiracy.

25 Counts Two, Four, and Six all charged aggravated

G4CSLAKP

1 identity theft under Title 18, United States Code,
2 Section 1028A. So I'll do the elements for those three counts
3 in one fell swoop.

4 A violation of Title 18, United States Code,
5 Section 1028A has four elements:

6 First, that the defendant knowingly used or
7 transferred or possessed a means of identification of another
8 person;

9 Second, that the defendant did so during and in 10 relation to the offense identified in the indictment;

11 Third, that the defendant acted without lawful
12 authority;

13 Fourth, that the means of identification was that of a
14 real person and the defendant believed that person to be a real
15 person.

16 Count Three, your Honor, charges conspiracy to commit
17 bank fraud in violation of Title 18, United States Code,
18 Section 1349. I'll do this the same way as I did Count One,
19 which is give the substantive elements first and then the 20 elements of a violation of the conspiracy statute.

21 The substantive crime of committing bank fraud in
22 violation of Section 1344 has three elements:

23 First, that there was a scheme to defraud a financial 24 institution or a scheme to obtain money or funds owned or under
25 the custody or control of a bank by means of materially false

G4CSLAKP

1 or fraudulent pretenses, representations or promises;

2 Second, that the defendant executed or attempted to
3 execute the scheme with the intent to defraud the financial
4 institution or to obtain money or funds owned or under the 5 custody or control of the financial institution; and

6 Third, at the time of the execution of the scheme, the
7 bank had its deposits insured by the FDIC, the Federal Deposit
8 Insurance Corporation.

9 The conspiracy statute charged here in Count Three has 10 two elements:

11 First, that there existed an agreement between two or
12 more persons to violate Section 1344, which is the statute I
13 just described; and

14 Second, that the defendant knowingly and willfully
15 participated the conspiracy.

16 The final count here that I haven't gone over yet is 17 Count Five. That charges false statement in an application and 18 use of a U.S. passport. So they have this broken out as the 19 elements for making a false statement in an application and 20 also the elements of using a passport. We have charged both
21 here because Mr. Lakou used the passport after he obtained it
22 through false statements.

23 First, the crime of making a false statement in an
24 application for a United States passport, in violation of 25 Title 18, United States Code, 1542, has three elements:

G4CSLAKP

1 First, the defendant made a false statement in an
2 application for a United States passport;

3 Second, that the defendant made that false statement
4 with the intent to secure the issuance of a passport for his or
5 her own use or for the use of another; and

6 Third, that the defendant acted knowingly and
7 willfully.

8 The crime of using a passport that was secured by a
9 false statement, which is also in violation of Title 18,
10 United States Code, Section 1542, has three elements:

11 First, that the defendant used the United States
12 passport;

13 Second, that the passport was secured in any way by 14 reason of a false statement;

15 Third, that the defendant acted knowingly and
16 willfully.

17 Your Honor, would you like me to continue with the 18 proof at this point?

19 THE COURT: If it's your pleasure to do so.

20 MR. COHEN: Thank you, your Honor.

21 The government's proof here would come from a variety
22 of sources. There is video footage of the defendant and his 23 coconspirators committing these crimes, there is a lot of 24 video, stills and there is video from various banks and from 25 jewelry stores, more than one video from jewelry stores in

G4CSLAKP

1 connection with the credit card fraud.

2 We have the bank records themselves, which will show
3 that fraudulent accounts were opened so that they could
4 fraudulently cash checks.

5 We would have much victim testimony. That would be
6 both victims whose names and identifiers were used in
7 connection with these schemes, but also victims of the victim
8 businesses who would testify about checks and why certain
9 checks were on their face fraudulent and not legitimate checks
10 from the business.

11 We would have, in connection with the passport fraud,
12 we would have the passport application that has the picture of 13 Mr. Lakou, and we do have this, and has the name of somebody
14 entirely different, who is this victim I have referred to
15 earlier as the Georgia individual, as well as the passport
16 application from 2014 that allowed Mr. Lakou to get a passport
17 in an additional name.

18 I am happy to supplement that if the court has any 19 questions.

20 THE COURT: No. I think that is sufficient at this
21 time, Mr. Cohen.

22 Mr. Lakou, at this time, would you please tell the 23 court in your own words what you did that makes you guilty of 24 the six counts in the indictment?

25 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

G4CSLAKP

1 For Count One, conspiracy to commit access device
2 fraud, I conspired and agreed with my codefendants --

3 THE COURT: Mr. Lakou, I am sorry to interrupt. If
4 you're reading from something, which is perfectly fine, pull
5 the microphone closer and read slowly, so the court reporter
6 can will be able to keep up and so that I can keep up. Most 7 importantly so the court reporter can record what you're
8 saying, read a little slower.

9 THE DEFENDANT: I'm sorry, your Honor.

10 THE COURT: No problem.

11 THE DEFENDANT: For Count One, conspiracy to commit
12 access device fraud. I conspired and agreed with my
13 codefendants, Zoheb Qamran and Jessica Hatten, from May 2014
14 through July 2015, here in the Southern District of New York, I
15 made purchases on credit cards without the permission of the 16 owners. Out of those credit cards, the values of the items we 17 purchased with those unauthorized cards exceeded $1,000.

18 Specifically I, along with my codefendants, purchased
19 $9,000 worth of jewelry in 2014, used unauthorized credit cards
20 at a movie theater, and purchased, on a separate date in 2014,
21 more jewelry worth $16,000 in Queens, New York, here in the 22 Southern District of New York.

23 I illegally obtained identifying information from a
24 person I did not have permission from to take his information
25 in May 2014.

G4CSLAKP

1 In December 2014, I again purchased jewelry using the
2 unauthorized credit card for $8,000 in Queens, New York.

3 I used these unauthorized credit cards with intent to
4 defraud the rightful card holder and owner, and I am aware that
5 the interstate commerce was affected by my actions.

6 THE COURT: Is that what you're allocuting to with
7 respect to Count One?

8 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

9 THE COURT: Before we go to the next one, let me ask
10 Mr. Cohen, is there anything further you would want me to ask
11 the defendant with respect to his allocution as to Count One?

12 MR. COHEN: Yes, your Honor. I could proffer it as 13 well, your Honor.

14 The movie theater was in the Southern District of 15 New York. The jewelry stores in Queens were not in the 16 Southern District of New York. Independent of that, with the 17 illegally obtaining identifying information, that information
18 was stolen at a building on Broadway in Manhattan. That would
19 be a separate basis for Southern District venue than the movie
20 theater purchase.

21 THE COURT: I gather, Mr. Myers, no issue with respect
22 to venue?

23 MR. MYERS: There is not, Judge.

24 I just added for his allocution, which he forgot, that
25 the information was obtained from the mail at 1441 Broadway

G4CSLAKP

1 here in Manhattan.

2 THE COURT: Is that correct, Mr. Lakou?

3 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Cohen, any other questions
5 you want the court to ask with respect to Count One?

6 MR. COHEN: No, your Honor.

7 THE COURT: You may proceed.

8 THE DEFENDANT: For Count Two, aggravated identity
9 theft. I, along with my codefendants, used identifying 10 information of others to obtain unlawful credit cards during
11 2014. After receiving the unlawful credit cards, we obtained
12 goods and services during 2014. I used the victim' names,
13 identifying information of these persons, to obtain these 14 cards.

15 Specifically I, along with my codefendants, added our
16 names to credit cards, which we were not the rightful owners
17 of, without the victims' knowledge or permission. Once we 18 received the illegal credit cards, we used the cards to 19 purchase various items without the owners' permission or
20 authority.

21 THE COURT: Is there any issue with respect to venue
22 as to this charge? I assume there is not as to any of them. I
23 will ask in an abundance of caution.

24 MR. COHEN: For Count Two, your Honor, the venue is 25 derivative on Count One because the 1028A is attached to the

G4CSLAKP

1 underlying conduct.

2 THE COURT: Is there any other question you would want
3 me to ask Mr. Lakou about his allocution to Count Two?

4 MR. COHEN: Yes, your Honor.

5 I just would like to confirm that Mr. Lakou knew that 6 at least one of the individuals whose identity information he
7 was using was a real person. I believe Mr. Lakou literally
8 spoke on the telephone to one of the victims while he was
9 committing the crime. It is one of the elements of 1028A.

10 THE COURT: Did you understand, Mr. Lakou, that at 11 least one of the individuals was, in fact, a real person that 12 you spoke with who whose identity you were taking?

13 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen, other questions?

15 MR. COHEN: No, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Lakou, do you want to 17 proceed to your allocution with respect to Count Three?

18 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

19 For bank fraud conspiracy, I committed bank fraud,
20 along with my codefendants, in that I opened a business account
21 by using false documents, using the false pretense that our
22 documents were legitimate, namely, that we had an H1-B business
23 Visa on file with the government, when in fact we did not. I,
24 along with my codefendant Qamron, deposited a check in the 25 amount of $193,000 payable to my codefendant, Mr. Qamron. We

G4CSLAKP

1 withdraw $40,000 of the 193,000 without the permission or
2 authority of the bank or rightful owner.

3 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen, further questions on that
4 allocution?

5 MR. COHEN: Your Honor, we could proffer as to venue
6 that the withdrawal of the 40,000 came from a bank branch,
7 Mr. Lakou and Mr. Qamron were in Times Square withdrawing that
8 money from a Times Square bank branch. That would be the basis
9 for venue there.

10 I think that's all, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Is that correct, Mr. Lakou?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: Why don't you do Count Four.

14 THE DEFENDANT: Aggravated identity theft. I
15 committed aggravated identity theft. I, along with my 16 codefendants, used, without lawful authority, the names of 17 actual other persons in relation to the fraudulent checks we 18 deposited without permission or authority or knowledge of the 19 persons whose identity we stole and used. We used the identity
20 of others to obtain credit cards and set up bank accounts and 21 withdrew money from the accounts without permission or
22 authority of those persons whose identity we stole.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen, any followup questions you want
24 to ask?

25 MR. COHEN: Your Honor, just to confirm that on the

G4CSLAKP

1 $1593,000 check, the signature of the individual whose name was
2 written there was forged. We have confirmed that with the
3 victim, but that would be our basis for the aggravated identity
4 theft.

5 THE COURT: Is that correct, Mr. Lakou, the signature
6 was, in fact, forged --

7 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: -- on the check that Mr. Cohen just 9 referred to?

10 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen, anything else?

12 MR. COHEN: One moment, your Honor.

13 No, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. With respect to Count Five,
15 Mr. Lakou.

16 THE DEFENDANT: False statements and application and
17 use of passport. I made a false statement in an application
18 for a U.S. passport. I made that false statement with the 19 intent to not only obtain the passport, but use the passport
20 for my own use. I acted in a knowing fashion when I made the 21 application and obtained the passport. From July 7, 2010 to
22 June 4, 2014, I made a purposeful and material omission
23 regarding names I had used in the past. And once I obtained
24 illegal passport, I used it from June 2014 to August 2014.

25 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen, any followup questions you want

G4CSLAKP

1 me to pose?

2 MR. COHEN: No, your Honor.

3 We would just proffer the venue is that, among other
4 places, he used the passport, among other occasions, he used
5 the passport to open a bank account on August 1, 2014, in
6 Manhattan, as described in the complaint. That's the basis for 7 the venue of Count Five. We are proffering that.

8 THE COURT: All right. That, I assume, is not
9 contested, Mr. Myers?

10 MR. MYERS: No, Judge.

11 THE COURT: Lastly, with respect to Count Six,
12 Mr. Lakou.

13 THE DEFENDANT: If I may, your Honor, make a statement
14 about Count Six? Is that something possible?

15 THE COURT: Talk to your lawyer before you make any 16 statement.

17 (Discussion off the record)

18 THE COURT: Are we going to proceed with an allocution
19 on Count Six?

20 MR. MYERS: We are, Judge.

21 The only issue is that Mr. Lakou actually purchased in 22 a legal way voluntarily using $500 and obtained that 23 information.

24 I think the prosecutor can explain why, in the future,
25 even if you obtain information from an individual and have

G4CSLAKP

1 purchased passport information, that there is an illegality
2 behind that.

3 MR. COHEN: Judge, we don't contest that he purchased
4 this identity for $500. He admitted that in his post-arrest.
5 And, in fact, our position is that even with permission on that
6 initial purchase, the individual from whom that identity was
7 bought did not know the scope of the conduct that Mr. Lakou
8 would engage in over the next four years with that identity.

9 And secondly, I have an opinion from Judge Marrero
10 himself on the question of whether -- and your Honor could 11 judge for himself all this from Judge Marrero's opinion -- but 12 basically in the context of an individual selling their
13 identity to be used by a defendant, that that still constitutes
14 1028A. And Judge Marrero, in an order from 2014, specifically
15 decided that question.

16 THE COURT: Do you want to state for the record what 17 case you're referring to?

18 MR. COHEN: Yes.

19 It is United States v. Natalia Ivanova.
20 I-v-a-n-o-v-a. That's 11 CR 614. It is docket No. 371 on the 21 docket. The discussion of the judge's order of this precise
22 issue starts on page 11.

23 Certainly, your Honor, we will be sending this --
24 assuming your Honor agrees, we will be sending this allocution
25 to Judge Marrero, asking the judge to accept the plea, as we do

G4CSLAKP

1 in any case, but our position is that even when somebody sells
2 their identity to a defendant, that that can be the basis for a
3 1028A.

4 We have no problem with the defense's allocution being
5 that he bought the identity in 2010 for $500 and proceeded to
6 use it illegally in a variety of ways. We believe that that
7 still meets the elements of the crime.

8 We had previously given Mr. Myers a copy of that
9 opinion from Judge Marrero. I can read the last two sentences
10 on page 18, your Honor.

11 THE COURT: This is of Judge Marrero's opinion in that 12 other case?

13 MR. COHEN: Exactly. This is from Judge Marrero's
14 opinion. I'll actually read that last paragraph on page 18.

15 "For those reasons, the Court rejects Ivanova's claim
16 that Count Four should be dismissed insofar as it applies to 17 Mangan and Norris. Even if those two individuals gave Ivanova
18 permission to use their means of identification, a jury could 19 properly convict Ivanova if that permission was granted only to 20 an unlawful end. The Court agrees with the findings of the five
21 Courts of Appeals that have held that permission to use a means
22 of identification for the purpose of committing fraud does not
23 constitute "lawful authority."

24 THE COURT: Mr. Myers, how is your client going to 25 proceed with respect to his allocution of Count Six?

G4CSLAKP

1 Are we going forward with it or no?

2 MR. MYERS: I'm sorry, Judge. Can I have a moment
3 with the prosecutor?

4 THE COURT: You may.

5 (Discussion off the record)

6 MR. MYERS: Judge, I think potentially he can allocute
7 on that.

8 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Lakou, why don't you
9 proceed, and let's hear when what you have to say with respect
10 to Count Six.

11 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

12 For Count Six, aggravated identity theft. I purchased
13 Mr. Chockman's passport for $500 and used it to commit passport
14 fraud.

15 THE COURT: And in doing that, you knew that was 16 unlawful?

17 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: And you were using another person's
19 identification unlawfully, is that correct?

20 You used this other individual's name to obtain a
21 passport fraudulently, correct? Is that right?

22 THE DEFENDANT: Correct. Yes, your Honor.

23 THE COURT: Mr. Cohen, what else did you want to ask,
24 if anything?

25 MR. COHEN: We believe that is legally sufficient,

G4CSLAKP

1 your Honor.

2 THE COURT: All right. Does the government represent
3 that it has sufficient evidence to establish Mr. Lakou's guilt
4 with respect to all of these counts beyond a reasonable doubt?

5 MR. COHEN: Absolutely, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Myers, do you know of any defense that
7 would prevail at trial or any other reason why your client
8 should not be permitted to plead guilty at this time?

9 MR. MYERS: No, Judge.

10 THE COURT: Are there any further questions either
11 counsel wants me to ask on the record as part of this
12 proceeding, Mr. Cohen?

13 MR. COHEN: No, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Mr. Myers?

15 MR. MYERS: I didn't have any other questions, Judge.

16 I did want to add that we did get permission from 17 Judge Marrero to hire an immigration expert. When that came 18 up, this immigration situation is very complicated. He is 19 literally a man without a state, because Sudan, the government
20 fell into South Sudan, and because of his status, he may not
21 even have status in either of those countries.

22 I won't belabor the record with that, but I did want
23 to make clear, because I think this is going to come up in some
24 immigration court, I am not an immigration expert, I know a lot
25 of judges just simply, by way of course, ask if I have

G4CSLAKP

1 discussed that with him.

2 I have, but I did take the extra step to have CJA
3 appoint an immigration lawyer. She flew up from Georgia, Sarah
4 Elizabeth Dill, and she was assigned and she went over all
5 these immigration issues with Mr. Lakou.

6 THE COURT: I appreciate your putting that on the 7 record.

8 I did ask Mr. Lakou, as part of the proceedings, that
9 he understands that his plea will have immigration
10 consequences.

11 And you do understand that?

12 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

13 THE COURT: I should say may have immigration
14 consequences. It is not for me to say.

15 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

16 THE COURT: But for our purposes, I just want to make 17 sure that you understand that by pleading guilty to these 18 charges, that could have consequences for your ability to
19 remain in the United States and your ability to ever become a
20 United States citizen.

21 THE DEFENDANT: Yes, your Honor.

22 THE COURT: Is there anything further on that
23 particular issue you think I should have to ask.

24 MR. COHEN: Not from us, your Honor.

25 MR. MYERS: No, your Honor.

G4CSLAKP

1 THE COURT: Is there any reason either counsel knows
2 of that I should not recommend that Judge Marrero accept the
3 plea as it has been allocuted on the record at this time?

4 THE DEFENDANT: No, your Honor.

5 MR. COHEN: No, your Honor.

6 THE COURT: On the basis of all of Mr. Lakou's
7 response to my questions and my observations of his demeanor, I
8 find that he is fully competent to enter an informed plea at 9 this time. I also conclude that he understands the nature of 10 the charges and the consequences of his plea. I am also
11 satisfied that his plea is voluntary and that there is a
12 factual basis for it.

13 Accordingly, I recommend that the proffered plea to 14 Counts One through Six of the indictment be accepted.

15 I assume the government will order a copy of the 16 transcript of this proceeding and will submit it to Judge
17 Marrero, together with any other paperwork, so that he may act
18 on this recommendation.

19 Will you do that, Mr. Cohen?

20 MR. COHEN: We will do so promptly, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Has he scheduled a sentencing date in this 22 case?

23 MR. COHEN: I spoke to chambers. I am supposed to 24 call chambers to request a sentencing date right after this is 25 concluded.

G4CSLAKP

1 THE COURT: We will set a control date of August 12.
2 I assume you'll get a date from his chambers in the short-term.

3 MR. COHEN: I will, your Honor.

4 THE COURT: As part of the process, Mr. Cohen, you
5 should submit your case summary for purposes of the presentence
6 report within the next 14 days.

7 Mr. Myers, you should make yourself and Mr. Lakou
8 available for him to be interviewed by probation within the 9 next 14 days as well, schedule permitting.

10 Is there anything else from the government?

11 MR. COHEN: No, your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Myers, anything further?

13 MR. MYERS: Nothing further, your Honor.

14 THE COURT: All right. Have a good day.

15 Have a good day, Mr. Lakou.

16 MR. COHEN: You, too, your Honor. Thank you.

17 (Adjourned)
